Terms and Conditions of Membership

1. Any organisation or individual who is eligible to join Micropower Europe in accordance with the categories above must submit an application in writing signed on behalf of an organisation by an authorised officer of the organisation or by any individual for himself. Election to and continuation of membership shall be at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
2. Membership is active only upon payment of the above fees and must be retained for a minimum of 12 calendar months from the date of signature. The fee for the first year of membership will be invoiced pro-rata according to the date of signature for each complete or part calendar month.
3. Annual membership fees will be due prior to the start of each calendar year. Membership services will be suspended if payment has not been received within 30 days of the due date.
4. Membership services will be suspended if payment is not received within 30 days of the date of the invoice or within 30 days of the start of the calendar year whichever is the later.
5. Funding Members may withdraw from Micropower Europe at the end of any calendar year by submitting a written notice of withdrawal which must be received at least 3 months before the end of the calendar year. Any withdrawing funding Member is liable to meet its proportionate share of any financial deficit of Micropower Europe as at the date of its withdrawal (as subsequently computed from annual accounts, based on the number of funding Members and the financial position of Micropower Europe at the end of the calendar year at which such funding Member wishes to withdraw).
6. Non funding Members may withdraw from Micropower Europe at any time, by submitting a registered letter to the secretariat of Micropower Europe. Micropower Europe reserves the right to request the withdrawal of any non funding Member at any time, by submitting a registered letter to the main contact address indicated by the non funding Member. In both cases, membership ends 30 days after the sending of the letter.
7. The applicant hereby acknowledges that this application, if accepted, shall constitute the entire agreement between the applicant and ourselves relating to membership of Micropower Europe and shall supersede any previous communication (whether oral or written) relating thereto. Any variation or addition to the application, the schedule of charges or these Terms and Conditions of Membership shall only be effective if agreed to by the applicant and ourselves in writing.
8. This application 'the agreement' shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with English law and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts. If any provision of these Terms and Conditions of Membership is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in violation of any applicable law or otherwise invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions under these Terms of Business shall otherwise continue in full force and effect.
9. Signature of the Membership Application Form represents a binding contract and an agreement with the Terms and Conditions of Membership.
